

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
1 Introduction	1
Brief Review of Welfare Reform	1
Why Study Welfare Leavers?	2
Why This Book?	5
Caveats to Using Leaver Studies	6
What Have We Learned?	7
Future Research	10
Notes	12
2 Methods Used in Welfare Leaver Studies	15
Defining the Study Population	19
Data Used in Leaver Studies	21
Summary	25
Notes	25
3 Leaving Welfare for Work	27
How Much Are Welfare Leavers Working?	27
How Did Working Leavers Find Their Jobs?	31
How Much Are Leavers Paid?	32
What Kinds of Jobs Do Working Leavers Hold?	32
Notes	39
4 Staying at Work	41
Employment Patterns	41
Earnings Patterns	44
Supports for Working Leavers	48
Summary	55
Notes	57
5 Leaving Welfare But Not for Work	59
Reasons for Not Working	61
Returning to Welfare	64
Not Working, Not on TANF	66
Sanctioned Leavers	69
Summary	71
Notes	71

6 Family Well-Being	73
Family Income and Poverty	73
Experiences of Material Hardship	83
Material Hardship by Employment Status	91
Overall Well-Being	93
Summary	96
Notes	97
7 Conclusion	99
What Do We Know about Welfare Leavers?	100
What Can Government Do To Help Families Leave and Stay Off Welfare?	101
What's Next	103
Appendix A: Issues in Comparing and Synthesizing Leaver Studies	109
Differences in Specific Methods Used and Study Implementation	109
Differences between Study Sites	110
References	119
The Authors	125
Index	127
About the Institute	135

Figures

1.1	Families Receiving AFDC/TANF	3
2.1	Location-Based Leaver Studies Reviewed in this Volume	16
2.2	Survey Information	18
3.1	Employment in the First Quarter after Leaving Welfare	28
3.2	Employment in the First Quarter after Leaving Welfare Using a $500 Earnings Threshold	30
3.3	Mean Earnings in the First Quarter after Leaving Welfare	33
3.4	Mean Earnings in the First Quarter after Leaving Welfare	34
4.1	Share of Employed Welfare Leavers Receiving Food Stamps at the Time of Survey	54
4.2	Share of Employed Welfare Leavers Enrolled in Medicaid at the Time of Survey	56
5.1	Work and Benefit Status in 1999 among All TANF Leavers 1997–1999	60
5.2	Potential Barriers to Work among Working, Disconnected and Working Former TANF Recipients, 1999	68
6.1	Share of Income, by Source, for All Leaver Families in Selected Studies	80

Tables

2.1	Location-Based Leaver Studies Reviewed in this Volume	16
2.2	Survey Information	18
3.1	Hours and Wages of Welfare Leavers	35
3.2	Hours and Wages of Employed Welfare Leavers and Overall Employment Rates	36
3.3	Percent of Employed Welfare Leavers with Employer- Sponsored Benefits	37
3.4	Industry and Occupation of Employed Welfare Leavers	38
4.1	Change in Employment of Welfare Leavers during First Post-Exit Year	42
4.2	Share of Welfare Leavers Ever Working Post-Exit and Working Consistently in First Post-Exit Year	43
4.3	Employment Patterns of Welfare Leavers Using $500 per Quarter Earnings Threshold	43
4.4	Employment Patterns of Single-Parent Welfare Leavers—Continuous Leavers	44
4.5	Earnings Growth of Employed Welfare Leavers	45
4.6	Earnings Growth of Consistently Employed Welfare Leavers	46
4.7	Earnings Growth of Welfare Leavers—Continuous Leavers	47
4.8	Earnings Growth of Welfare Leavers Using $500 per Quarter Earnings Threshold	48
4.9	Child Care Arrangements among Employed Welfare Leavers	50
4.10	Welfare Leavers Paying for Child Care	52
5.1	Reasons for Not Working for Leavers Who Are Not Currently Working	62
5.2	Percent of Leavers Returning to TANF	65
5.3	Leavers Off TANF and Not Working	67
6.1	Monthly Income and Poverty of Welfare Leavers	75
6.2	Percent of Leaver Families Receiving Various Sources of Income at Time of Interview	78
6.3	Monthly Income of Welfare Leavers, by Employment Status ($)	82
6.4	Leaver Families with Select Sources of Income, by Employment Status	83

6.5	Leaver Families' Experience of Food Insecurity	85
6.6	Leaver Families' Experience of Food-Related Problems	86
6.7	Leaver Families' Receipt of Emergency Food Services	87
6.8	Leaver Families' Experience of Difficulty Paying for Housing	88
6.9	Leaver Families' Experience of Problems with Access to Housing	89
6.10	Leaver Families' Experience of Difficulty Paying Utilities	90
6.11	Leaver Families' Experience of Difficulty Receiving Health Care	91
6.12	Leavers' Experience of Material Hardship, by Employment Status	92
6.13	Leavers' Experience of Food-Related Problems: Comparing Time before and after Exiting TANF	94
6.14	Leavers' Experience of Housing-Related and Medical Care Problems: Comparing Time before and after Exiting TANF	95
6.15	Overall Current Well-Being Relative to before Leaving TANF	96
A.1	Methodology of Leaver Studies	112
A.2	Administrative Data	114
A.3	Leaver Studies Included in This Review	116